

THERE'S A LOT OF REALLY TERRIBLE DANGEROUS PEOPLE LURKING IN OUR CHILD FILLED COMMUNITY, AND EVERYONE KNOWS BUT IS TOO AFRAID TO SPEAK UP
(it's a mouthful but the most accurate depiction)

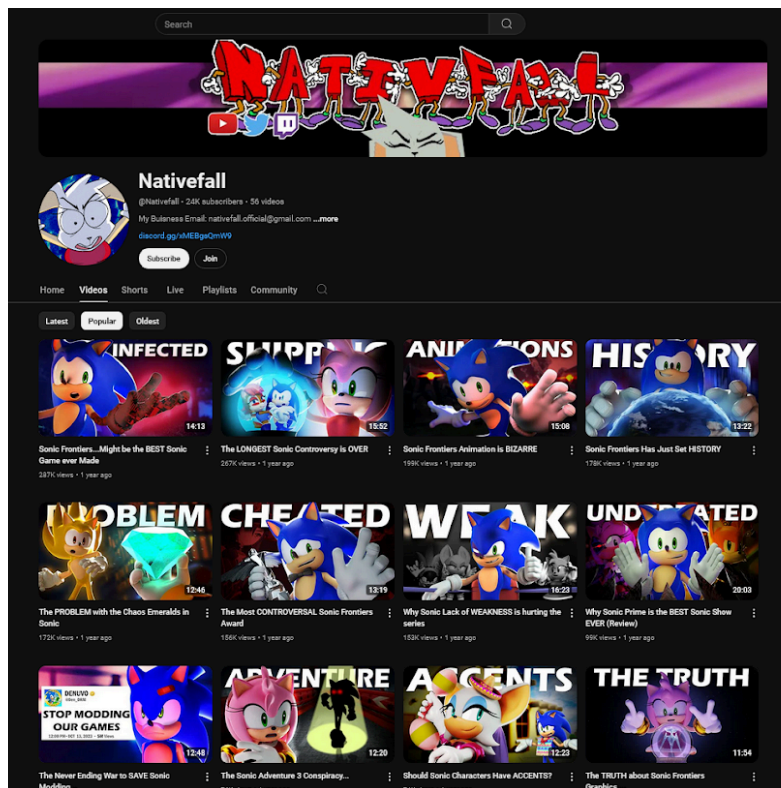

Right out of the gate, before getting into it, the reasons this information is very important for everyone to be aware of, especially right now is:

- Recent multiple IRL Sonic fan meetups
- Sending Porn to multiple minors in public servers
- Sending Porn to multiple minors through DMs
- Admitting to receiving actual real life Child Porn
- Caught collecting thousands of baby fur “cub” & “rape” images
- Drawing and posting many pornographic images of Cream, Sage, Maria, and other child characters
- Being platformed and directly interacting with thousands of children (including private messages)

As you can imagine, this stuff is pretty disturbing. So if you need to take a break and look over this in multiple parts, don't feel guilty! It's going to be a very overwhelming amount of info (and frankly really long) so that might just be the best way to go about reading this.

The two individuals the doc will be focusing on are a YouTuber named, Nativefall, and another named ShannyClassicNackFan.

Now many of you will already know who Native is, but if you don't, this is him. You've likely seen one or two of his videos in passing before.

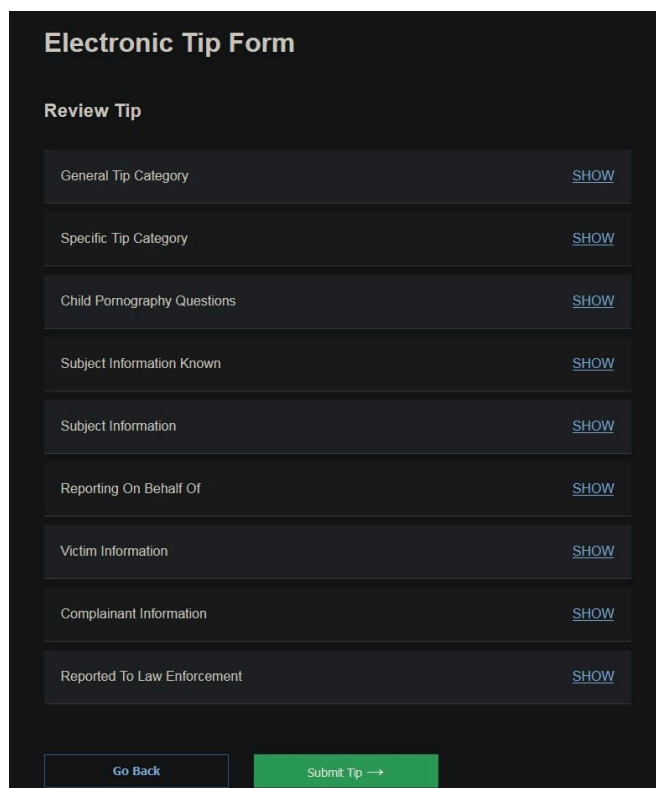

The second individual is known as Shannyclassicnackfan, who many of you likely won't immediately recognize. As he is mostly known for being a main cast member on the videos/streams of YouTuber, Sam Procrastinates, of whom he has been featured & mentioned in over 150 different individual videos/streams. (proof below)

Shanny doesn't have much of a platform on his own, but by using Sam's platform (to which there are clips of confirming Shanny's talking personally with Sam's fans), Shanny is actually directly interacting with and speaking with far more minors than Native has the reach to. (Sam's platform size is approximately double Nativefalls)

IMPORTANT DISCLAIMER:

While art and a lot of these things are definitely immoral, most are not illegal. However, with Native admitted to receiving actual IRL CP, this IS illegal and actionable, and with Native having admitted to lying about submitting it to the police, I have since gone to the proper authorities and reported it myself (Center of Missing and Exploited Children connected me with the FBI)

The screenshot shows the 'Electronic Tip Form' in a review stage. It features a list of fields with 'SHOW' links next to them: General Tip Category, Specific Tip Category, Child Pornography Questions, Subject Information Known, Subject Information, Reporting On Behalf Of, Victim Information, Complainant Information, and Reported To Law Enforcement. At the bottom, there are 'Go Back' and 'Submit Tip ->' buttons.

-SHANNY-

Here are three short but important clips of Shanny appearances and mentions, to not only demonstrate how frequent of a cast member he is on these streams. But through one superchat message in particular, the public gets a glimpse of how Shanny appears to be personally talking and interacting with Sam's fans.

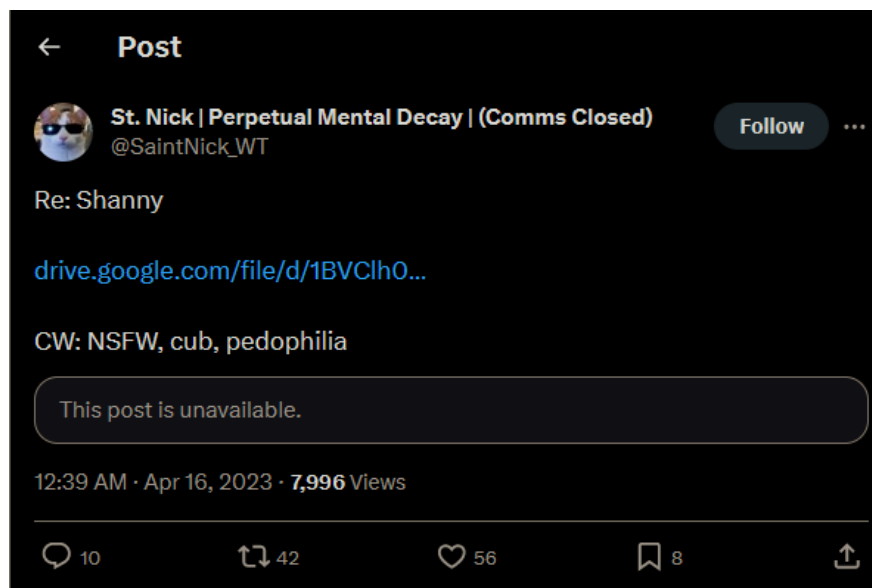

(And there's obviously no way to confirm the age of a random superchatter, but notice the way it's written and try to tell me you don't think a kid clearly wrote this.)

It's important to note that Shanny was in his 30's when he sent a minor porn, and is in his mid to late 30's today. (possibly very early 40's)

SNick's Initial Allegations Against Shanny

So to start, let's begin with the video SNick made, first uncovering that something here was clearly wrong.

These were first brought under the radar in Early 2023, with a tweet containing a google drive link to a video. Something that didn't gain much traction, as not only is it limited to twitter, but clicking a random google drive link is something most just won't do. (Even I was only recently shown this for the first time)

Now this video was by a well known member of the community named, "SNick!" [pronounced "S•Nick"] who even if you're not familiar with, you might be familiar with this extremely viral meme song he made, usually referred to as, "Mr. Imposter/Mr. Sus"

Now onto the video that SNick posted on the google drive, things take a much more serious turn here.

Shanny's, "Cub"&"Rape" Fetish Exposed On Video

You can watch it in full here if you're interested, but to recap:

- >SNick was 17 when Shanny sent him porn
- >Shanny was in his 30's
- >SNick found Shanny had an inkbunny account
 - >Clicks on his favorites collection
 - >Sees thousands of babyfur images
 - >Clicks on a single image's tags

Animation: when daddy loves you by KrazyELF - fox, cub, incest, anal, male, gay, age difference, animation, m/m, anal sex, foxes, animated, males, gif, zorori, male/males

- >Clicks on second image, maybe just a weird one-off

Topical FurryNetwork Commentary! by Harmarist - cub, rape, wolf, male, censorship, cum in ass, flaccid penis, fully sheathed

- >Holy Shit What the fuck
- >Thousands of pictures just like this

I again, strongly recommend watching SNick's video. but if you insist on not, here's some examples of some of Shanny's favorites, since SNick's were scrolling, too blurred to understand what you're seeing, and only read 2 tags. However quickly once looking into it myself (these are all still available for anyone to see) I immediately realize that It only gets so much worse...

Now before everyone asks, yes,

Sam is aware of all the Shanny stuff and has been since he got outed.

I don't say this lightly, but after having multiple multiple pieces of evidence, I think it's nearly a fact at this point.

To start, here's a screenshot of Matt confronting Sam about his friendship and platforming of Shanny.

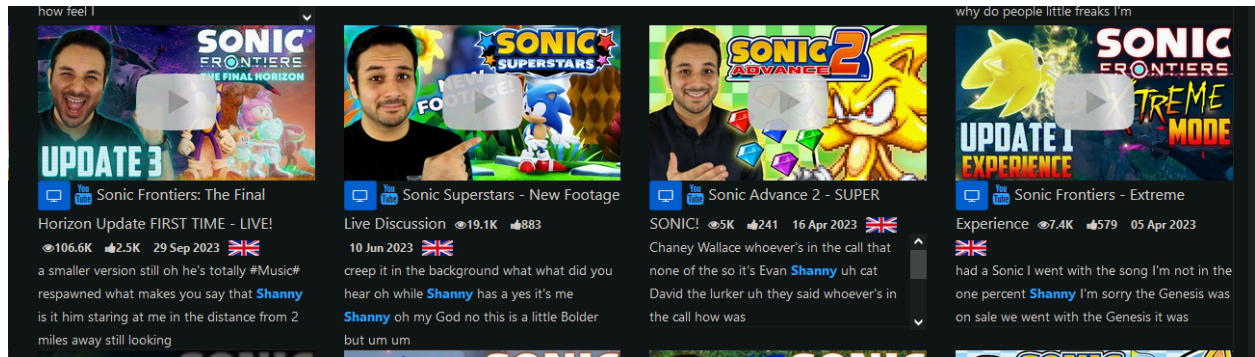

(NOTE: After writing this, I reached out to Sam, which I put his comments at the end of the Shanny section, but in short, he claims he was not aware of the severity of the allegations against Shanny. Keep this in mind as we proceed and you can come to your own conclusions if you believe him.)

(Matt gave me his blessing to show these and has been helping with this investigation since the beginning <3)

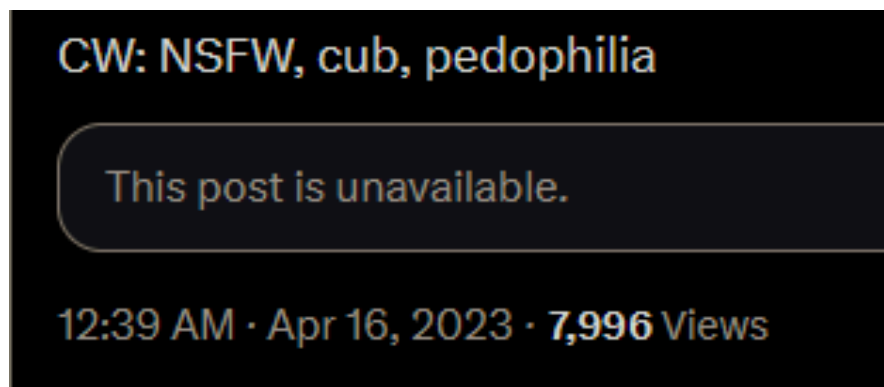

However these "cut ties" were never cut. Obviously considering live streams are public, Sam gets in front of this by saying, "Haven't really been connected to him outside of him joining my streams" which have you ever found yourself frequently inviting and streaming to an audience of over 50,000 subscribers with someone who has a fetish for, "cub" (the furry term for babies), "rape", "Incest", "Age Difference" and many others.

THEN do you find yourself doing this over 150 times (over 40 this year alone) with someone who you also claim to not have a friendship with? (despite calling each other friends and laughing and giggling on stream)

Shanny was exposed on April 16th of 2023 at midnight. Sam then streamed the next day with him, however If it's true that he cut ties, then it was only from April to September. Then from there it was full speed ahead resuming his stream appearances. (In 2024 alone there have been 40+)

Also the messages between Matt and Sam are in reference to this post below. This aspect becomes VERY important when we get to Sam's response to this.

Prominent members of the Sonic community and people who worked on official media such as; Matthasnocuts (Sonictuber), VictorMcKnight (apart of Strategy Guide), DR_AFX (FX Artist for Powerhouse Animation), Sam Procrastinates (apart of Strategy Guide) and others were friends with Volg Shan, known by most as 'Shanny'.

Shanny had connections to Sega of America employees, was staff at communities such as SFGHQ, and had connections with other people in the Sonic 'clique'. For example, they leaked information on 'Sonic Colors Ultimate' in a public voice call to people in the community. They were later exposed for having a collection of explicitly nsfw depictions of minors in their favorites on the furry website 'Inkbunny'.

The context is I lost my plug. 😞😞😞

Matt @Matthasnocuts · Apr 19
No more Sonic leaks.

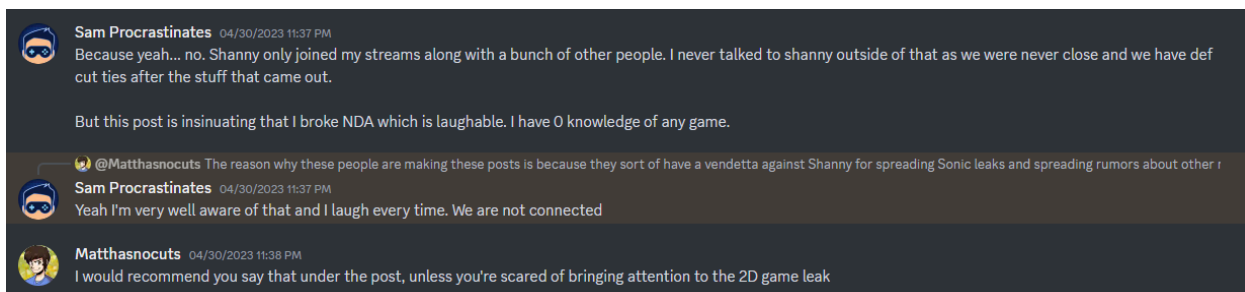

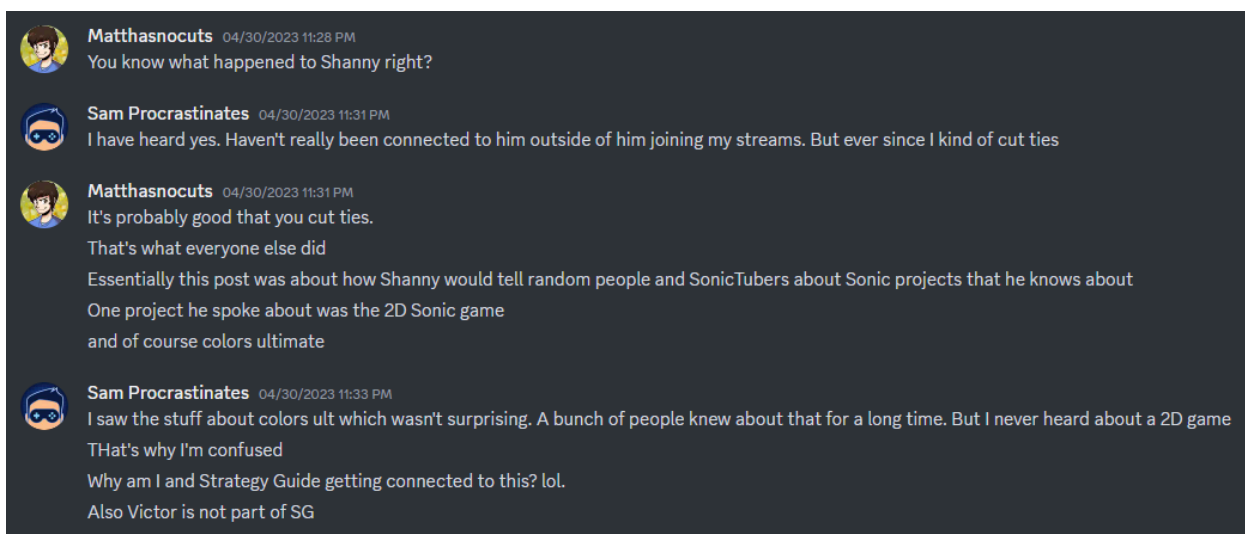

The 2D Modern Sonic game, talked about in our original tweet, was spread around a lot of Sonictubers. A member of our news team was in a voice call with the owner of a discord server centered around Sonictubers.

Our member was talking about the 2D Modern game in a public vc, and questioned to the owner if he knew about the game or knew who Shanny was (Shanny was a prior member of the server). He confirmed that he knew of 2D Modern Sonic game and heard it from Shanny. This was during Shanny's time in the scene, so this shouldn't hold him liable. After Shanny was exposed for having a collection of explicitly nsfw depictions of minors, Matthasnocuts posted that there would be "No more Sonic leaks... The context is I lost my plug". Zippo and Shanny probably have similar sources.

This post was by Starlight News, and you can see it referenced directly in the message exchange below.

Here's the full convo, so you can understand that there is full awareness of this post, and it has been carefully read and is referenced multiple times by Sam.

Which while yes, the top part presuming who is a part of Sam's company was incorrect, Sam addresses it in a complete sentence, meaning the Shanny stuff he's referencing, must be specifically regarding this line:

Artist for Powerhouse Animation), Sam Procrastinates (apart of Strategy Guide) and others were friends with Volg Shan, known by most as 'Shanny'.

people in the community. They were later exposed for having a collection of explicitly nsfw depictions of minors in their favorites on the furry website 'Inkbunny'.

This is frustrating to me, because Sam later tries to paint this as not trusting SNick due to personal reasons, but he is directly responding to this post from an entirely separate party named, “Starlight News”

Now I want to believe he did not know of this, but when you look at what was referenced in the initial post, then their exchange, I don't know what other conclusions you can make. And this is only 1 of multiple pieces of evidence from multiple parties, portraying the Sam was full aware of these allegations.

Prominent members of the Sonic community and people who worked on official media such as; Matthasnocuts (Sonictuber), VictorMcKnight (apart of Strategy Guide), DR_AFX (FX

Why am I and Strategy Guide getting connected to this? lol.
Also Victor is not part of SG

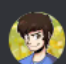

A member of our news team was in a voice call with the owner of a discord server centered around Sonictubers. Our member was talking about the 2D Modern game in a public vc, and questioned to the owner if he knew about the game or knew who Shanny was (Shanny was a prior member of the server). He confirmed that he knew of 2D Modern Sonic game and heard it from Shanny. This was during Shanny's

But this post is insinuating that I broke NDA which is laughable. I have 0 knowledge of any game.

 @Matthasnocuts The reason why these people are making these posts is because they sort of have a vendetta against Shanny
Sam Procrastinates 04/30/2023 11:37 PM
Yeah I'm very well aware of that and I laugh every time. We are not connected

 Matthasnocuts 04/30/2023 11:38 PM
I would recommend you say that under the post, unless you're scared of bringing attention to the 2D game leak

people in the community. They were later exposed for having a collection of explicitly nsfw depictions of minors in their favorites on the furry website 'Inkbunny'.

 Matthasnocuts 04/30/2023 11:28 PM
You know what happened to Shanny right?

 Sam Procrastinates 04/30/2023 11:31 PM
I have heard yes. Haven't really been connected to him outside of him joining my streams. But ever since I kind of cut ties

 Matthasnocuts 04/30/2023 11:31 PM
It's probably good that you cut ties.
That's what everyone else did

(also note how it goes from, “kind of cut ties” to “def cut ties” so quickly after Matt saying, “that’s what everyone did”).

But who is, “everyone” and why did none of them tell Sam? (despite in this interaction seeming like he knew)

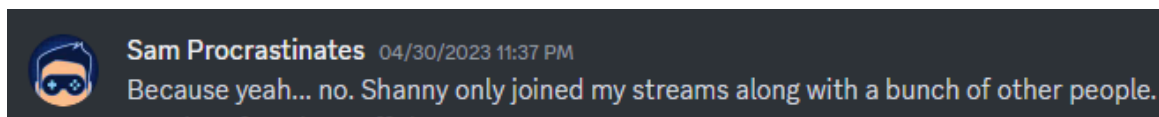

One of life’s greatest mysteries

“My Friend Shanny”

Now note that Sam specifically said, “Shanny only joined my streams along with a bunch of other people. I never talked to Shanny outside of that as we were never close and we have def cut ties after the stuff that came out”

So Here are a couple more clips, these ones specifically of Sam (and his girlfriend Kennie) referring to Shanny as “my friend”. One of these is even from May 2024, so pretty recent too. ...despite cutting ties in 2023.

So even if it hypothetically is true that you aren’t friends anymore, you are at the same time platforming someone who has a sexual fetish towards babies and has been confirmed to have sent a minor porn, towards an audience of almost entirely children.

Now to immediately debunk this above statement, there ARE plenty of streams where it’s exclusively Shanny and Sam. (All of which are still public)

But also keep in mind, this DM exchange is from 2023. Sam claims that he, “Cut ties after the stuff that came out”

So if you take a look below, notice that every single one of these streams are both ones that feature or mention Shanny, AND are from 2024.

How Shanny Is Known

Now to briefly explain how Shanny was so well connected to the entire community before this, he is known for providing private leaks to creators and friends that he makes sure they aren't allowed to post or talk about, but get to have bragging rights of, "Hee hee, I know a thing you don't!" and this is something as short as even a week ago I have witnessed one of Shanny's now former associates doing.

However, it's never been clear to anyone who this person giving Shanny inside details of future releases and even gameplay footage, and since he's been cut off from so many, it's either one of these, "not friends" that are hanging around with Shanny in Sam's streams, or someone anonymous inside (or contracted through) Sega. Regardless, it's someone who after hearing all he's done, has decided to stick with him. Likely because this anonymous individual shares similar fetishes and sexual desires towards minors.

There's no way to know for sure, but whoever the hell it is, we know it's someone who has deliberately chosen to stick around Shanny.

FOR DISCLOSURE: I know based on the subject, many will wonder this as I am known for covering Sonic leaks, "Jaden, were you ever friends with Shanny or receiving these leaks?" And the answer is no to both. I have never messaged Shanny ever, and I have never received any leaks from him, directly or indirectly.

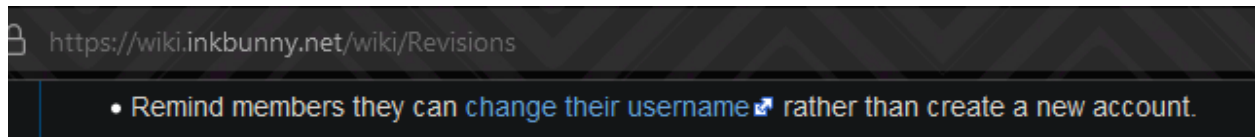

Shanny Is Seemingly Still Posting Cub Porn

Now you may wonder, what happened to Shanny's inkbunny? Surely he deleted it and moved on after being caught, right?

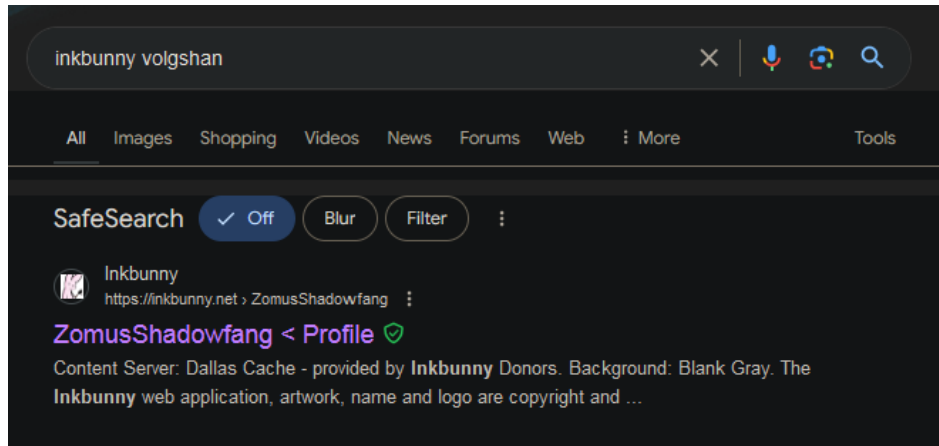

Well I'm not so sure.

We do know he is still into this same type of stuff from his DMs with Native that we got him to show us, which we'll cover in more detail in Native's section.

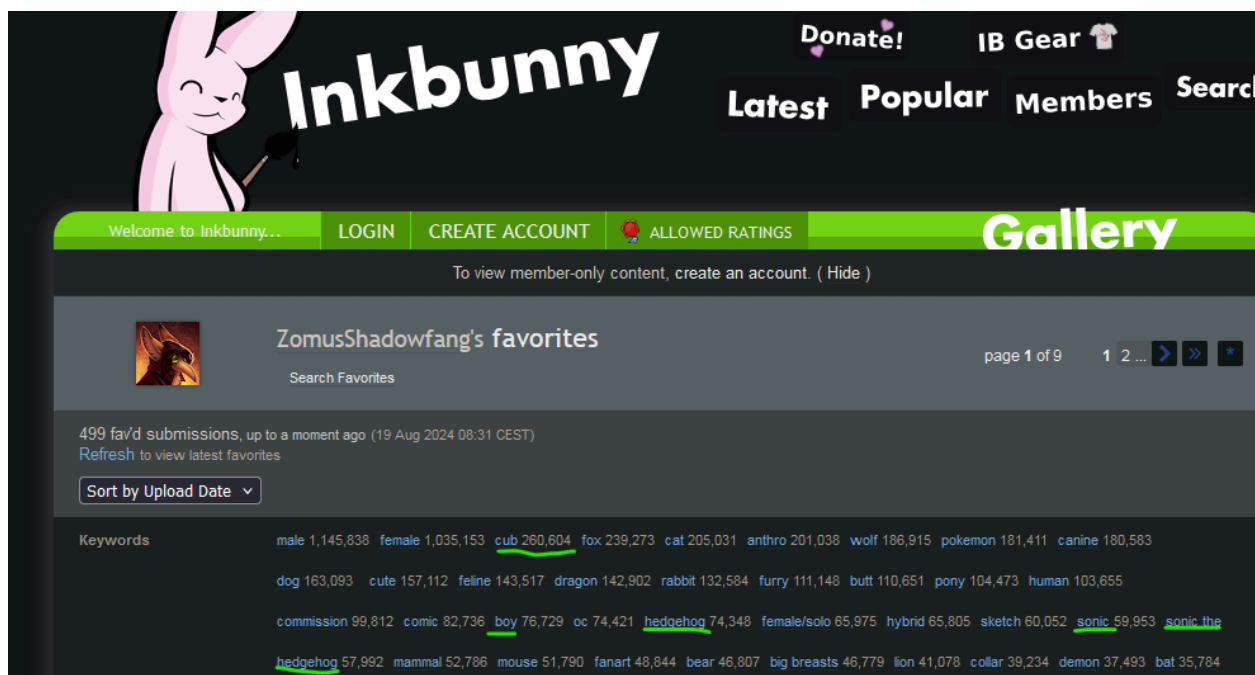

But as it turns out, Inkbunny has already come up with a solution for people who get exposed like this. (must be a common occurrence there 🙄)

So when you google, “Volgshan Inkbunny”, the name of his old account. You see this.

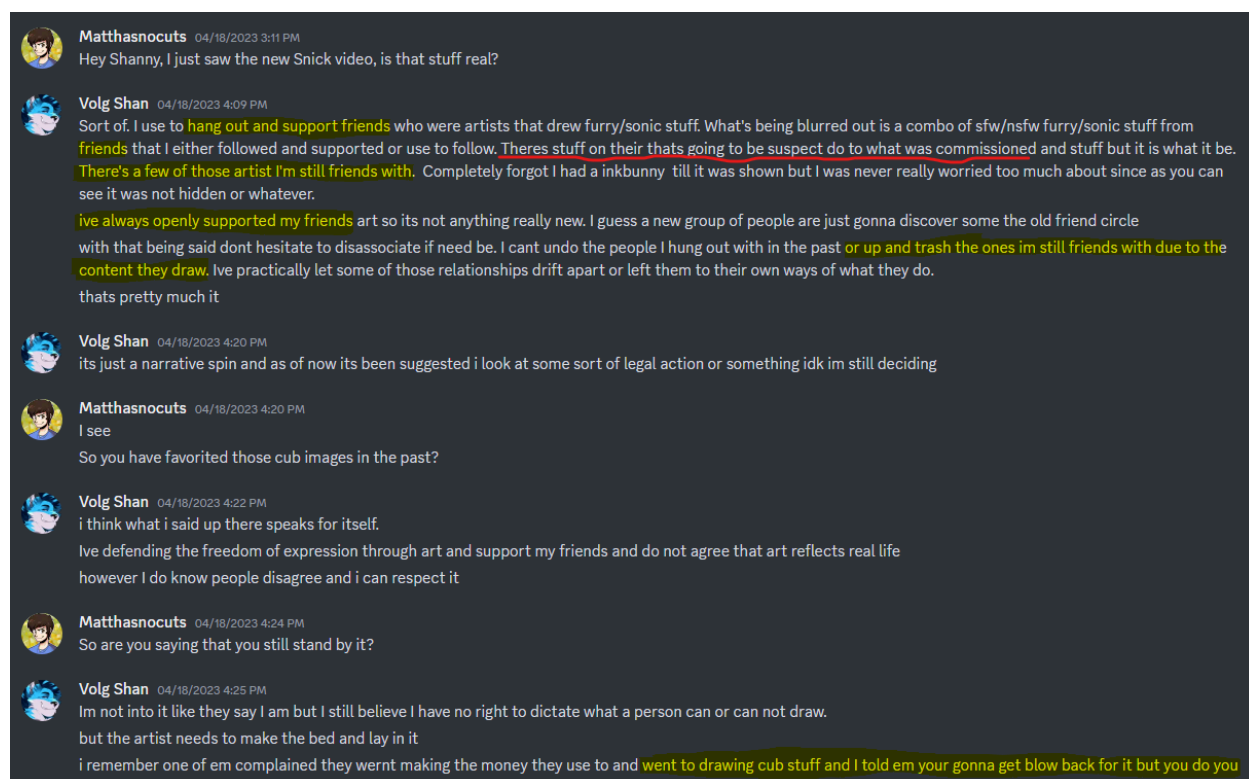

Now this alone doesn't confirm anything. While google does cache pages and displays them based on tags currently and previously indexed, it's also possible this is just a random account. To get a better idea if it's Shanny's, let's look at their favorites to see if there's anything that lines up with what was in the other account's favorites.

Oof. So the third top tag is, “cub”, and further down you see a lot of Sonic related ones, which is definitely a very weird coincidence for both. Especially since Shanny in his confrontation with Matt, specifically mentions being friends with Cub artists and Sonic NSFW work as well.

Matt Confronting Shanny

And in those same messages, he admits that a lot of these pieces were commissioned. And that, “a few of those artist I’m still friends with.” Meaning this goes further than favoriting these images, but these are the people who he, after all this, still stands by and keeps in his circle. With the conversation ending with one of his friends “drawing cub stuff and I told em your gonna get blow back for it but you do you” as optics seems to be all these people care about. Not about the actual actions committed, but if you get caught or not.

Now my thoughts on Shanny are, it’s very weird how intentional and strong the effort is to cover up what he’s done, as well as replatform him. Attraction to babies, and especially the rape of them, is not a “temporary phase” and is a sick indication of this individual’s headspace.

This type of person should not be platformed to a large audience of children, and if the FBI were to look at their hard drives, there’s a good chance they wouldn’t be allowed within 50 feet of one.

I know many have and will say, “Shanny has changed” but for that to happen, 1) there has to be proof of said change. A track record of a lack of these inappropriate interactions. And just deleting your public socials and lurking in the dark does not count as “rehabilitated.” Just because you haven’t been “caught” again, doesn’t mean you’ve changed. It just means you got a bit better at hiding it. And with this supposed Inkbunny being his (something he’ll obviously never admit) I personally have no reason to believe he’s changed, other than getting worse.

So... Why is Shanny still kept around?

There are literally thousands of small creators trying to get some spotlight or attention in the sonic community. Some that are extremely talented but have never been discovered by a major audience. So in my honest opinion, to keep platforming someone like this, when you know there’s infinite choices for a cast member, who ISN’T attracted to “Cub, Rape” porn, at some point comes off as intentional ignorance and is something that in my opinion I cannot consider to be, “just a coincidence.”

No Rehabilitation For Pedophiles

There is nothing but evidence the attraction to minors is not something you can just, “get better” from, so do not try to rehabilitate this weird creep and attempt again to platform them to your audience of almost entirely children.

The screenshot shows the GoodTherapy website. The header includes the GoodTherapy logo, navigation links (GET HELP, LEARN, FOR PROFESSIONALS, ABOUT, WORKSHEETS/RESOURCES, NEWSLETTER), and a search bar with the text "FIND A THERAPIST" and "Enter ZIP or City". There are also links for "SIGN UP AND GET LISTED" and "LOGIN".

The main content area features a section titled "New research shows that pedophilic disorder may be neurological in nature, lending further support to the position that an attraction to children is not a choice. Some may find this difficult to accept, as those who do act on their desires and molest children have the potential to cause serious and lasting harm to many children. They may repeat their crime over and over until stopped by the criminal justice system. Many people may believe that, once caught, people who molest children deserve to spend the rest of their lives in prison, but the reality is that many of these individuals will eventually be released."

Below this, it states: "Upon release from prison, offenders are often required to enter rehabilitation programs, which are meant to redirect pedophilic urges and help a person refrain from harming children. These programs are often viewed with skepticism, as many believe that a person who molests children cannot be rehabilitated and that pedophilic urges will always lead to the sexual abuse of a child. However, there are several perspectives on the issue."

A section titled "THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PEDOPHILIA AND CHILD MOLESTATION" follows, stating: "Psychological perspectives on child molestation vary greatly, but experts agree that most people who molest children fall into one of four categories:"

1. Children or teenagers under the age of 16 who are sexually curious and may experiment with younger children.
2. Adults who have a brain condition, intellectual disability, or other mental health issue.
3. Individuals who have an antisocial personality and may use children sexually but have no particular sexual desire for children.
4. Individuals who are older than 16 and experience ongoing sexual desire for children. Sexual desire for children, or pedophilia, can be identified and treated or controlled with therapy and medication.

It concludes with: "Ninety-five percent of all known instances of child molestation are committed by people with pedophilia. Other individuals may molest"

[Also before anyone says it, yes, I would definitely consider an attraction to babies or “cubs” as pedophilia. They are younger than children, so frankly it’s a bit worse, but I’m not gonna pretend like I know all the different pedophile terms for different ages, so I’ll just stick with the original.]

That’s all I have to say on Shanny. While Sam is the only one currently platforming Shanny, especially to this degree, there are plenty of people who are still friends with him and privately talk behind the scenes. Sure they do not feed their fans to Shanny in the same way, but they do still have some level of responsibility as their friendly associations seem like an indication of their own character.

The Good Guys In This Story

One of the few that I actually have to applaud is Tails Channel. Ever since Shanny got exposed, they have not platformed him once to their audience of 130k+ subscribers. Again if it’s not clear enough, I think they did a really good thing. The point here is to minimize the amount of potential victims, and while many know I have butted heads with the way TC is run, I also have to give them absolute credit for being the most responsible ones in this situation and cutting ties when a lot of others didn’t.

To also give credit, I want to mention Matthasnocuts, who helped me immensely with this investigation, was close friends with Shanny at the time. And as hard as it was, he did not hesitate to confront and permanently cut ties once aware of Shanny's babyfur rape fetishes. I don't think any other individual creators would want to be named (even in this positive way here) but the point is that a lot of people close to Shanny cut ties, even when it was hard. So while a lot of this seems negative, I also want to point out that it's not all bad guys in this story.

While sure, individual members have been seen being friends with him since, which don't get me wrong, is NOT good. I do think when it comes to awareness, the most important thing about these predators is NOT FEEDING THEM ANY MORE POTENTIAL VICTIMS, a responsibility we all have as creators.

SNick ended his video on Shanny saying, "You stay the fuck away from him" and even though a year has passed, it seems through networking on Sam's streams, more people are with him now than were ever before, even then.

It's disgusting and a complete failure of responsibility to let it escalate this far.

I shouldn't have to say it, but it's WRONG to use your platform to push someone who has an attraction to minors, in front of a large group of minors.

Shanny, Leave the internet and fuck off permanently

Sam's Response & My Opinion

As someone who personally has a level of personal respect towards Sam, I think it's only fair I spoke directly with him in advance and tried to get his perspective, in case there's something missed that changes everything. The call was around an hour and a half and we covered a lot of ground (he specifically asked for and is okay with me to recap)

So in short:

- Sam claims he was not aware of the severity of the Shanny allegations
- Was dealing with mental health issues at the time and didn't look into SNick's video
- Heard about Shanny stuff from Matt and another creator but didn't know what "Cub" porn was
- Has since our talk, cut ties again with Shanny
- Claims SNick has a history of telling lies, so he didn't listen to him
- Claims SNick when speaking to Sam IRL, never portrayed it as anything "baby" related

Here's a longer excerpt in his own words that he gave me permission to share.

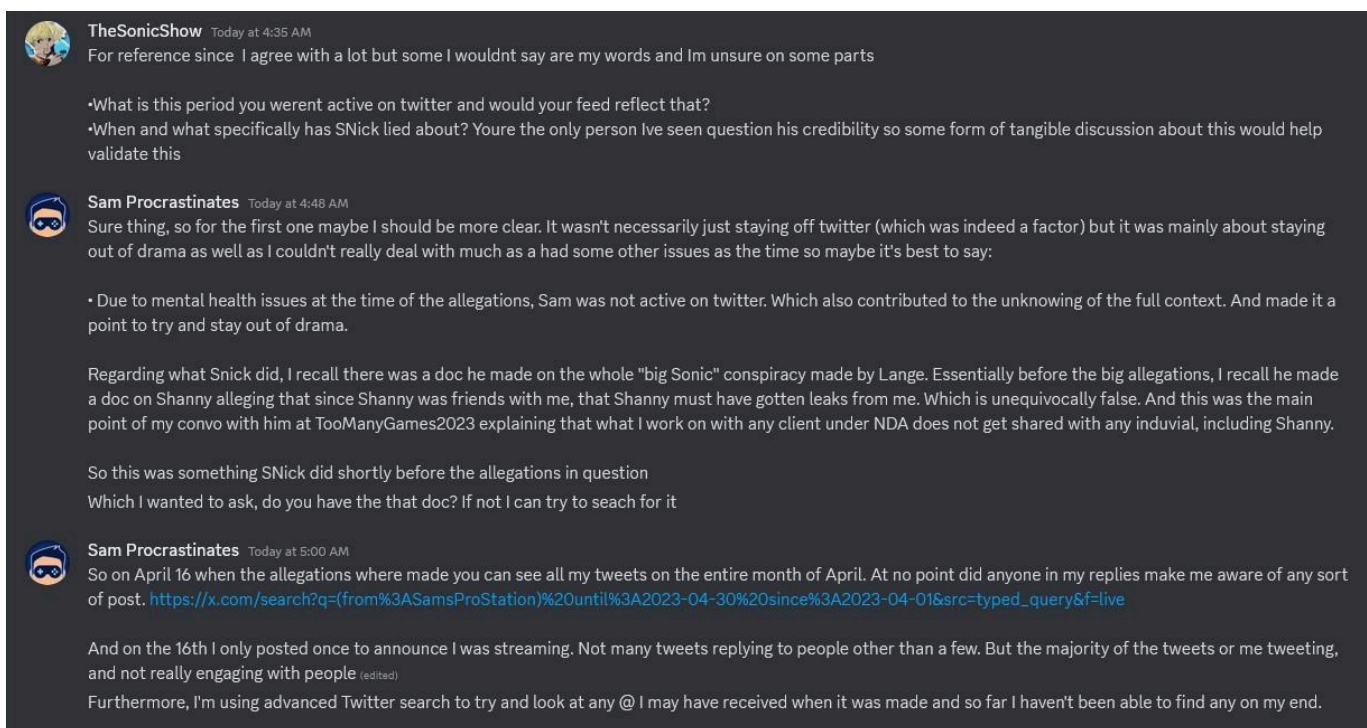

(I think a screenshot is better than copy pasting so you know for 100% it isn't tampered)

Sam Procrastinates Today at 4:30 AM

Just wanted to give a bit more context just so nothing gets misconstrued. Thanks again for letting me share my piece:

- Sam was not aware of the severity of the Shanny allegations as it was made by someone whom Sam thought wasn't truthful based on past false stories shared by SNick which included Sam himself and his work. This gave Sam no reason to look into what SNick was saying on twitter and actively avoided him. (prior to the serious allegations made)
- Due to mental health issues at the time of the allegations, Sam was not active on twitter and did not see anything tagging him to the related post. Which also contributed to the unknowing of the full context.
- Heard about Shanny's allegations from other creators but was still unaware of the full context as well as the meaning of "cub". Which was not made clear and was only discussed as being furry porn.
- SNick when speaking to Sam IRL, never portrayed it as anything "baby" related, and was understanding of Sam wanting to stay out of what he (Sam) thought was drama at the time. Not knowing the full gravity of the allegations
- Permanently cut ties with Shanny right after The Sonic Show brought the full context of what was alleged.

But that's his response. Here's my take on it:

Now, I'm not in Sam's head. There's no way to know for sure if Sam was aware or not, but I think it's only fair and just that I also platform him to give his chance to respond.

Before making this, I had 100% certainty that Sam would cut ties with Shanny when confronted by me, as you'd have to be literally mentally deficient to be pushed on all this stuff, and then go, "Babyfur guy is my friend and I stand by him!"

But the fact of the matter is, the cutting of ties now can't change the platforming and damage that's already been done. Shanny has wormed his way in, spoken to multiple minors, and even created a name and brand for himself, all within these streams.

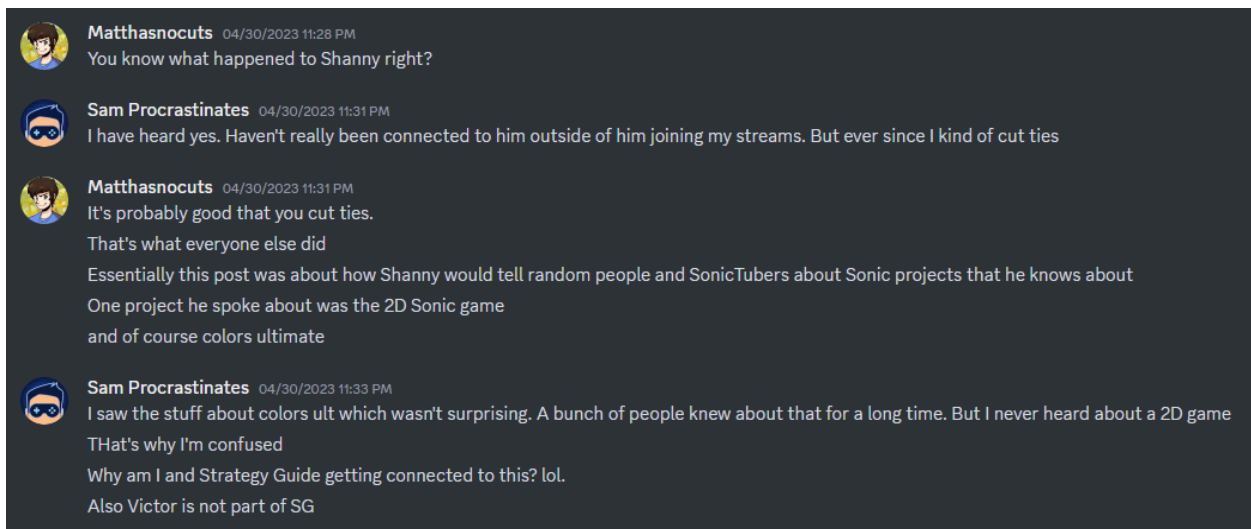

To give the benefit of the doubt, even if you don't know what Cub is, you have to at least have some idea that it was creepy but the way people were reacting, which unfortunately a lot of creators are caught with adult furry porn, so there had to be something about the Shanny allegations that were different.

(Notice the phrase, "cub" isn't used once. You can't deny you don't know what. "Having a collection of explicitly nsfw depictions of minors" means)

Prominent members of the Sonic community and people who worked on official media such as; Matthasnocuts (Sonictuber), VictorMcKnight (apart of Strategy Guide), DR_AFX (FX Artist for Powerhouse Animation), Sam Procrastinates (apart of Strategy Guide) and others were friends with Volg Shan, known by most as 'Shanny'.

Shanny had connections to Sega of America employees, was staff at communities such as SFGHQ, and had connections with other people in the Sonic 'clique'. For example, they leaked information on 'Sonic Colors Ultimate' in a public voice call to people in the community. They were later exposed for having a collection of explicitly nsfw depictions of minors in their favorites on the furry website 'Inkbunny'.

And it just seems impossible to read this, write the following, and STILL feign ignorance to the situation you're caught here addressing:

I want to be as charitable to Sam and mentioned this in the call, but even if I hated someone's guts with all my heart, I would still hear them out if they're alleging they have some proof or serious allegations on someone I keep in my circle and platform. Also SNick was NOT the only one talking about these allegations.

(It would be like if someone told me Matt was a pedo and I had to cut him out. I would do it instantly)

I'm also unclear on the discussion Sam had with SNick because he says that,

"SNick when speaking to Sam IRL, never portrayed it as anything "baby" related, and was understanding of Sam wanting to stay out of what he (Sam) thought was drama at the time. Not knowing the full gravity of the allegations"

And while I want to fully believe Sam, I now have to question how SNick, who made the entire video on Shanny, spoke IRL with Sam and mentioned the Shanny stuff, but didn't mention, "Cub." Or maybe he did but Sam didn't know what that was, because the quote is specifically, "Baby." Which I do believe is fair he didn't explain it, If Sam had gone along and nodded as if he knew what cub was.

But again, if I saw anyone, even just one person told me about this (which 4 people including me have talked to Sam about this) even if I didn't know what cub was (I personally didn't before this investigation) I would at the very least google it, or even just ask the concerned person what, "cub" is. Or even ask, "Hey, What did Shanny do?"

Especially since he previously said, "We have def cut ties after the stuff that came out."

Sam Procrastinates 04/30/2023 11:37 PM

Because yeah... no. Shanny only joined my streams along with a bunch of other people. I never talked to shanny outside of that as we were never close and we have def cut ties after the stuff that came out.

Which he doesn't say what he did by name so there is room for plausible deniability, but why would you say you "def cut ties" if it wasn't that bad?

Also when referencing, "after the stuff that came out" if you aren't aware of it, what are you referencing here? Being a furry? You have plenty of furry friends so it literally has to be something worse than that.

He makes claims about SNick lying, which he wasn't able to find the doc or any proof of this, making this anecdotal and "his word vs his word" so I have nothing to make of this, considering nobody else has testified or mention SNick lying whatsoever.

Sam mentions in the message and in the call multiple times, he was going through mental health issues and didn't want to police Shanny's position in their streaming group.

And I, who does YouTube full time, and also struggles with mental health, have frequently gone almost to over a month without posting a video, as well as weeks without tweeting anything. As anyone who is aware of me knows, I'm severely autistic, so I have to deal with a lot of mental problems because of that. So I even told sam this, but the "too busy to tweet" and "didn't want to play Police with Shanny" thing doesn't hit with me, considering there are still tweets and content from that time, which someone who is struggling would probably slow down on content, especially if it isn't their main source of revenue.

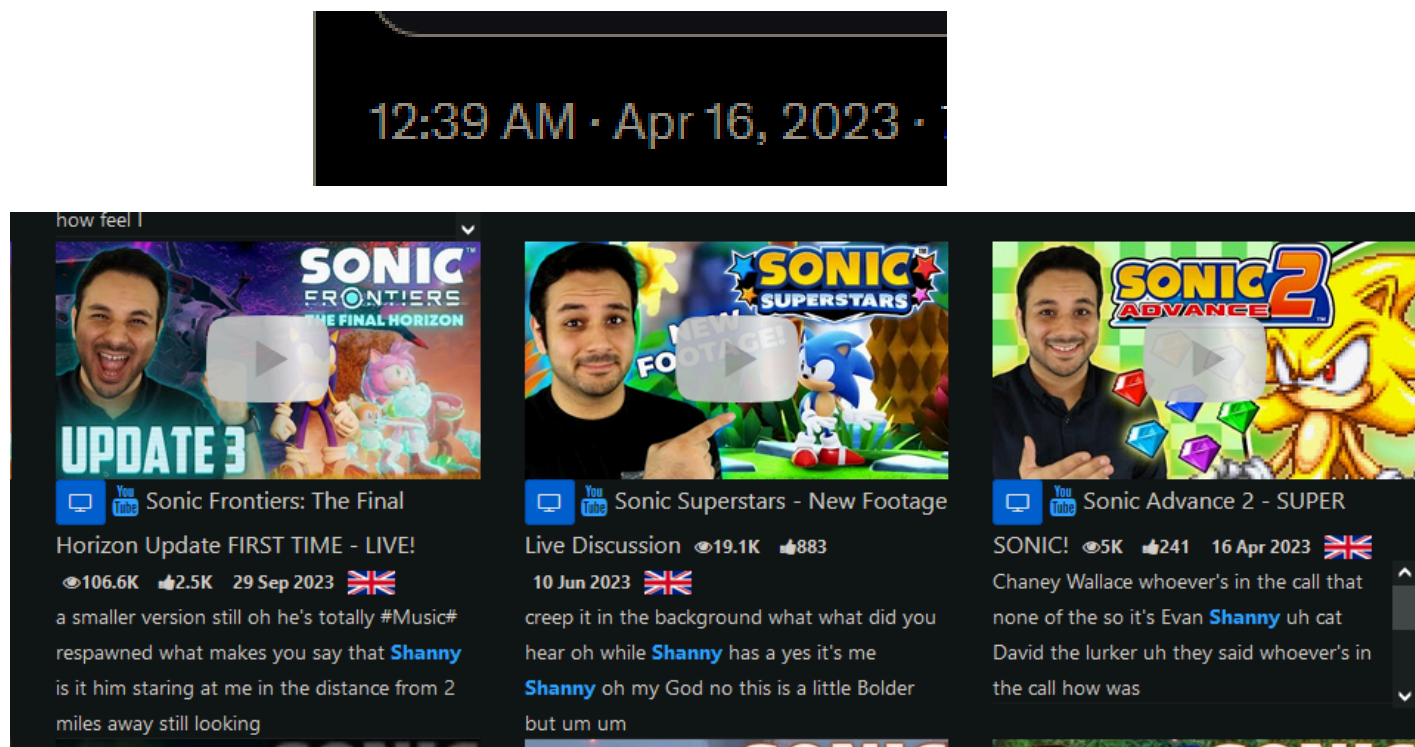

And just like Sam, I who has social anxiety, is being forced to confront Sam on this whole document. So I can imagine if I were in his shoes, I would 100% confront Shanny, or at the very least ask people around me what they thought. Because hypothetically, even if Sam didn't know, I find it extremely hard to believe that his entire friend group that's in the server with Shanny and streams, also didn't know. Especially when Matt, who wasn't even an adult at the time, was aware of this.

So even after talking with Sam, I'm still a bit gray on all the details, and have been super transparent with him that I feel this way. I want to believe him, but there simply is a lack of evidence and the evidence there IS seems to point that he was at the very least, somewhat aware that Shanny did something so bad, you have to cut ties.

And this is now his second time claiming to cut ties.

Which last time, lasted from April to September

Well, what's a bear cub?

That's a great question. Now on our call, I asked Sam to tell me what he thought a cub meant. To which he says, "like a bear cub". Something that is 100% true, a kid bear is quite literally a bear cub. And you can also hear the moment he says this, he realizes what he's done, immediately tries to backpedal, and starts nervously stammering.

For proof of this, here's a clip of this moment.

I did not record the entire call and only started recording once Sam brought up recording, which made me think he was recording our call, likely so he could clip out of context and frame the situation how he pleases. So to protect myself I did the same

(something that I've checked is legal in a one-party consent state, like where I live)

Now all that said, I have to give Sam some credit, not just for responding and being open to talking, but also his response was MILES better than Natives, who we get into next.

While there were a few heated moments in our call, it was overall very civil and I genuinely thank Sam for being open to answering my questions about this investigation. While it did become less civil as time passed, I still appreciate the civility in our initial call.

SNick's Response To Sam (& It Gets So Much Worse)

Through a mutual connection, I was finally able to build a bridge to connect with SNick, to which he had some disagreements with Sam's portrayal of their interaction and his character. Since he is getting brought into this, he definitely deserves a chance to say his peace on the subject.

The only agreement he made me give, is that I wouldn't reveal his name on any of the socials we speak on, as he wants nothing to do with the "SNick" identity and is trying to move on with his life. (and as someone who's named, "The Sonic Show" I definitely relate)

Now after this exchange, he gave me any archives he has, both officially through Archive.org as well as unedited video proof of Shanny's inkbunny, going over his favorites. And hot damn does it get so much fucking worse.

But in terms of what Sam said against him, SNick has a lot of rebuttals and disagreements that he wants to clear up. So this is his perspective, like with Sam I am not copy pasting text for proof this isn't tampered at all by me:

TheSonicShow Today at 3:56 PM

So this is the statement he is wanting me to give publicly, so this isnt like a leak or anything, but when you talked to him about the Shanny stuff, did you ever mention the phrase "cub", explain what cub was, or say it was something bad? He claims he was under the impression it was just "Furry porn" but a lot of people get caught with furry porn, rarely does it warrant saying youll "cut ties" and are disgusted with the person. So Im not sure what to make of this.

He also claims there's a doc you and others made (I believe he said Lange) that was filled with lies about him? He doesnt seem to have a copy of this doc so I dont really know what this part is about or what the lies are since I dont have any familiarity with the, "Big Sonic" thing

Sam Procrastinates Today at 4:00 AM

Just wanted to give a bit more context just so nothing gets misconstrued. Thanks again for letting me share my piece:

TheSonicShow Today at 4:00 AM

For reference since I agree with a lot but some I wouldn't say are my words and Im unsure on some parts

•What is this period you werent active on twitter and would your feed reflect that?
 •When and what specifically has SNick lied about? Youre the only person Ive seen question his credibility so some form of tangible discussion about this would help validate this

Sam Procrastinates Today at 4:00 AM

Sure thing, so for the first one maybe I should be more clear. It wasn't necessarily just staying off twitter (which was indeed a factor) but it was mainly about staying out of drama as well as I couldn't really deal with much as I had some other issues as the time so maybe it's best to say:

- Due to mental health issues at the time of the allegations, Sam was not active on twitter, which also contributed to the unknowing of the full context. And made it a point to try and stay out of drama.

Regarding what SNick did, I recall there was a doc he made on the whole "big Sonic" conspiracy made by Lange. Essentially before the big allegations, I recall he made a doc on Shanny alleging that since Shanny was friends with me, that Shanny must have gotten leaks from me. Which is unequivocally false. And this was the main point of my convo with him at TooManyGames2023 explaining that what I work on with any client under NDA does not get shared with any indiviual, including Shanny.

So this was something SNick did shortly before the allegations in question
 Which I wanted to ask, do you have the that doc? If not I can try to search for it @TheSonicShow So this is the statement he is wanting me to give publicly, so this isnt like a leak or anythi...

Today at 4:08 PM

I think Sam is referring to a document I made specifically about a personal incident between Shanny and myself, which included his connections with individuals throughout the scene. This was done mainly to explain who Shanny is and what level of influence/connections he had throughout the scene at large. I don't recall actually making a document specifically for "Big Sonic" or whatever. Nor did I imply Sam or any party outside of Shanny was acting maliciously in said document. There is also no mention of Shanny being a provider of leaks in said document.

As for the "cub" thing, in the discussion I had with Sam irl I was under the impression that he already was aware of what was going on and what certain terms meant, as he specified that Shanny and him had cut ties not long after the ordeal went down.

>There is also no mention of Shanny being a provider of leaks in said document.
 actually, scratch this bit from the record. I did mention that he "is usually seen as an "in" for Sonic influencers to get exclusive scoops on information ahead of time", just reading over things right now to make sure it's all correct

I did not specify who used him for this, though, and in retrospect the wording may imply that all of Shanny's connections utilize him for such as opposed to just a handful of folks thruout the scene prodding him about nonsense. (edited)

And to be honest, this makes more sense to me. The fact that Sam seemed like he knew, which he did with Matt too, is a really intelligent tactic of plausible deniability, and I'm not saying Sam, "for sure knew" but I do think it's almost certain he was aware of something going on, and past the extent of "furry porn." Which with Shanny being a source of leaks and connections, makes perfect sense to me as to why they would continue to keep him around and bring him on streams.

You tickle his back by bringing him on streams, he tickles yours by giving you inside knowledge and leaks.

After this exchange, SNick gave me links and proof to backup his claims, which outside the video on SNick's now suspended twitter account, is the first time I've seen the raw uncensored version of Shanny's inkbunny favorites.

To make matters worse, while there's both the archive.org page proving Shanny's account existed, as well as the unedited video of SNick scrolling through his favorites, It turns out, Shanny's favorites on the main Inkbunny website are still up to this day.

All you have to do is search whatever tag you want, and favorites by "VolgShan"

Now scrolling through the “cub” tag, there’s immediately at least 30 instances of Cream, Tails, And Marine the Raccoon, and hundreds of other “cub” characters

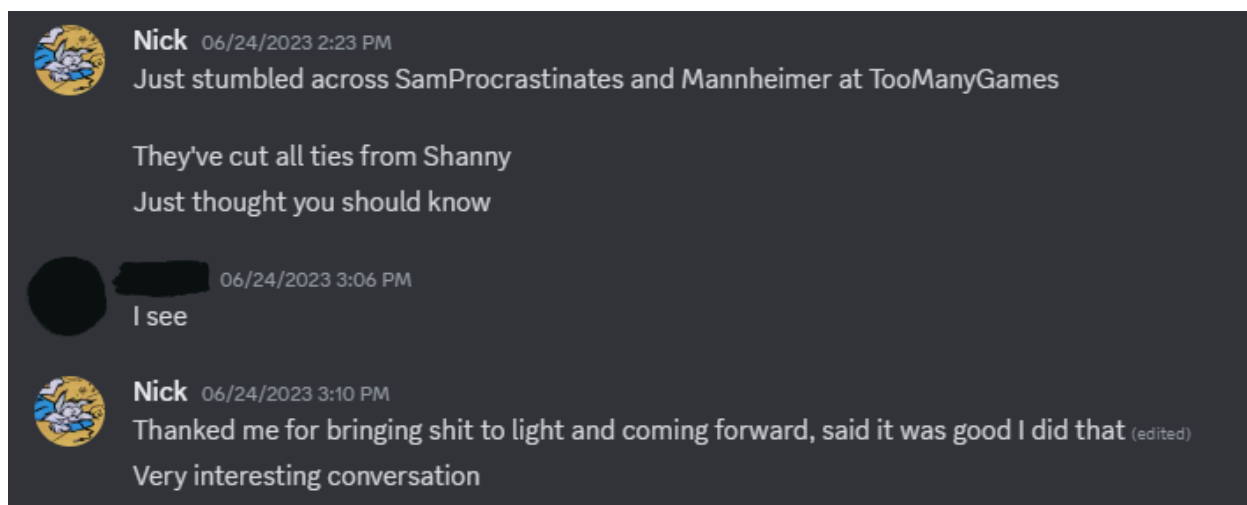

(look at these tags, what the actual FUCK)

And these are just Sonic characters, and ones I instantly recognize. There are hundreds of random furry characters who are babies either solo, or fucking an adult.

Now in terms of his conversation with Sam, SNick on the same day as Toomanygames, something Sam confirmed happened in his response, wrote this to someone he wants to keep anonymous, as they aren't relevant to the story.

So this is another mention of cutting ties with Shanny... which is something that is only happening now since I confronted Sam personally about it and pressed harder than anyone previously.

...But the last line.

“Thanked me for bringing shit to light and coming forward, said it was good I did that”

How can anyone read this and take away the idea that Sam didn't see the video on Shanny, when he's literally thanking SNick for it? And if not, what did SNick bring to light?

Why are you thanking him if you have no knowledge of his video?

Why did you cut ties with Shanny?

Questions that, unless someone starts being more honest, the world may never know.

SNick & Sam Takeaway

For complete transparency, I can't fully know whose right or 100% telling the full truth, as they both tell similar but very different stories. Especially when it comes to the claims of this supposed doc and history of lying, as I can't find any evidence of SNick lying. In fact, it seems like he's been extremely consistent overall, with all of his decisions making logistical sense and being relatable to me.

Not even including the fact that he's given me all the evidence and proof he has at every opportunity.

And with there being a metric fuck ton of holes in Sam's story, I can't help but take the side of SNick, who has at every point provided me with evidence and proof. While the only evidence Sam has provided me was a link to an advanced twitter search, showing Sam didn't tweet a lot for a certain period. (Still tweeted, just not a ton)

But is him not tweeting proof he didn't know about Shanny's cub porn? Not one fucking bit.

In fact, if my friend got outed like that, I'd probably lay low on twitter too as to not attract unnecessary attention or drama towards yourself. As you definitely would want this to blow over.

...And when it does simmer down, you stream with them almost a hundred times after that.

So while he's my peer and someone I respect, I have to be on the side of evidence and facts.

However, I also don't want it to be perceived as, "Anti-Sam" because at the end of the day, I am just looking for the truth in all of this, and If anything, I'm biased towards Sam, as I've met him IRL and he seemed really nice, and I've never met SNick or even spoke with him before today. (In which we only exchanged a handful of DMs)

Here's my final thoughts when it comes to this, you're welcome to have your own takeaway.

A graphic with a black square in the center containing white text. The square is set against a light green rectangular background. The text reads: "Occam's Razor" in a large, bold, serif font, followed by "The simplest explanation is usually the correct one." in a smaller, regular serif font.

-NATIVEFALL-

Now it's subjective which one of these two people are worse, and with how similar what they've done is, I will not even attempt to go, "well it could be worse" when the topic is the attraction and sending porn to minors.

There's a lot more that he's done, in terms of:

- Sending porn publicly to minors (Discord Servers)

- Sending porn privately to minors (Private DMs)

- Posting multiples pieces of porn of Cream and other child characters

- Running a server of 700+ dedicated to porn, of which it's members demand less restrictions on porn of human children (oh and there's a "Bluey" porn channel too)

- Sending back and forth very sketchy porn with Shanny AFTER he was outed for "cub" porn

- Pathologically lying so much, to the point he even created a fake identity to try and escape these critiques

- Promoting an Admin for his server that's far worse than Native, and posting WAY more porn of minors

But obviously I have to go into these one at a time, so the table of contents on the left will be your friend if any particular one interests you more than the other.

Sending Porn in the Mobius Zone

So to start in order, I'll begin with Native Publicly sending porn to minors through a server he and a small group of Sonictubers promoted called, "The Mobius Zone"

(for reference: I am not one of these creators and only just joined recently for the investigation)

Now Native would go and since it's a server full of literal child Sonic fans, post porn in various channels (all of which were Safe for work) and when the kids would freak out and act disgusted, he would quickly delete. But sometimes not for a while, and there are multiple mods who can attest to this. I got permission from three Mods-Admins who saw this and testified on camera and not anonymously.

You can listen to them answering 4 questions I had about Native, Here

This happened so much that despite being a co-owner of the server, he was permanently banned and all staff was warned he was not allowed back.

But this was for, “shock value” and at this point, there’s still the plausible deniability that it was a “joke in poor taste” and not for more nefarious purposes, but that might change as we proceed

Sending Porn Directly To Minors

Now there are a few examples of inappropriate conversations Native has had with minors, a few of which now have some level of notoriety in the community, and there’s no clearer example of Native’s pattern of behavior than with Lukestation, a creator who was at the time, 16. This is something everyone who’s spoken (or seen) Luke knows.

This was first mentioned by Luke on July 22 2023. The date of this comes into relevancy very quickly.

Now Nativefall initially claimed he did not send this, and that it was actually a lewd but not explicit picture of Rouge sucking on a popsicle, to which he provided chat logs as well to show this isn't what was sent.

Message @LukeStation

This exchange between Native and Luke happened on 12/29/22.

However if you're a keen observer, you might have noticed that these messages are edited.

Now I don't think Native is aware of this, but if you mouse over the "edited" text, you can see exactly when it was edited.

Considering Luke's tweet was posted July 22nd at 12:21 PM, you can see Native waited around 12 hours after to go and edit his messages to make things look better.

He also spent almost a full hour going through and editing/deleting messages to change the context. And then lied about it in his own response.

Where even in our OWN DM's he tries to manipulate and soften what was sent.

Native-fallin · 7/22/2023, 2:30:49 PM

it was not an animation of rouge sucking dick

TheSonicShow · 7/22/2023, 2:33:16 PM

Well hopefully the first one because the second one is definitely worse and doesn't come off as a meme

Native-fallin · 7/22/2023, 2:33:33 PM

it's most def the first one

When in reality, it was neither of the pics Native sent, and was a GIF of Rouge sucking a dick. Luke doesn't remember what exact pic it was, and neither do I (since Native immediately went and wiped any proof of it) however if he was smarter and deleted his messages rather than editing them, he maybe could have gotten away with it.

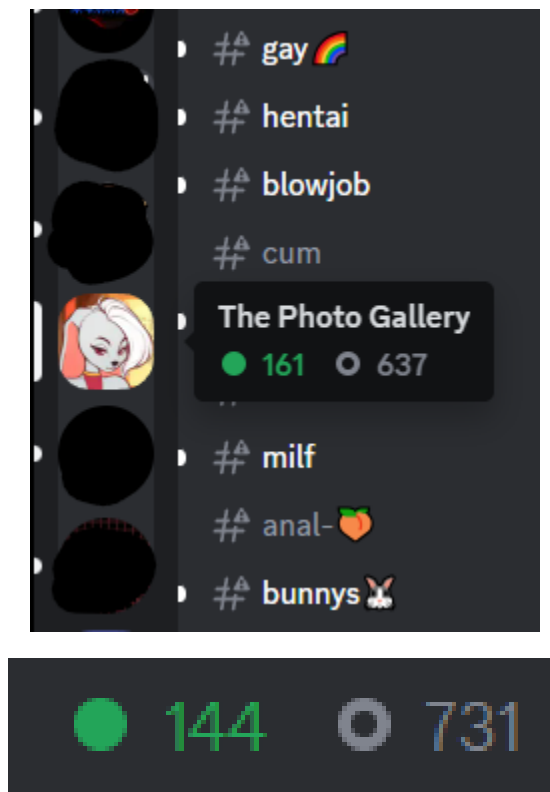

Almost Getting Away With It

Now just like his multiple times posting porn in the Mobius Zone, Native did not end with Luke. In fact, he created an entire server for this same purpose.

The server is called, "The Photo Gallery" and in it, there's a LOT of very gross and pedophilic things going on in there.

Let's start with a basic breakdown.

It has over 700 members, a photo icon of Nativefall, and was founded by Nativefall.

For a while he pretended like the server was transferred to a "female friend" he had named, "illamajamma." As the stuff in it is so rough, despite founding it, Native wanted to drop association. They also joined the server shockingly quick after being created.

Which also interestingly, the same account wrote this message:

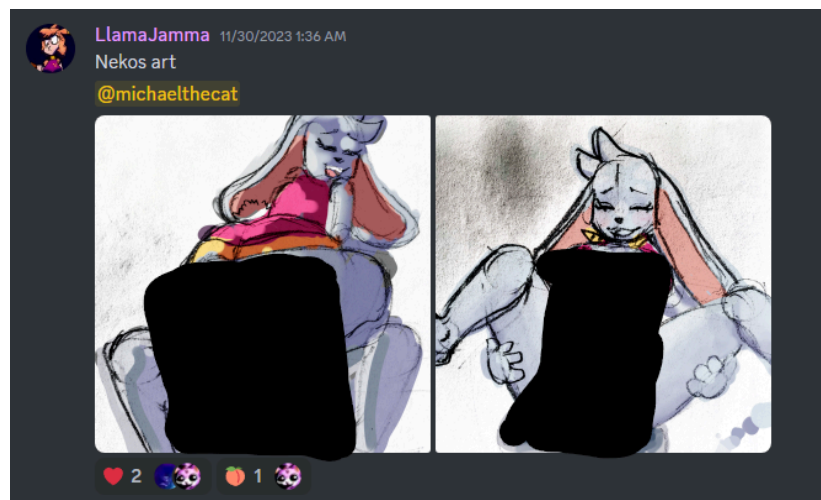

And if you were to click on these images they posted, it's incredibly small, but you can see in both images, the watermark of, "Nativefall"

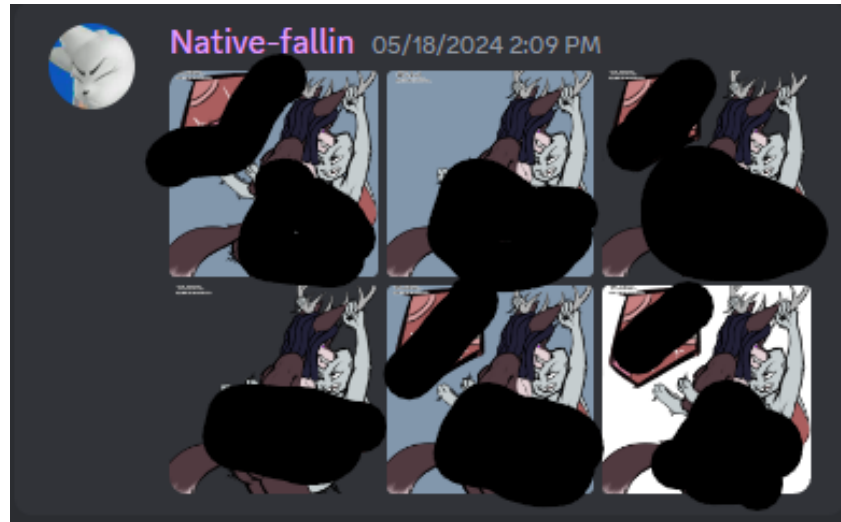

However as recently as May, Nativefall is back on main, and coincidentally, The LlamaJamma account has almost 100% ceased posting ever since he came back.

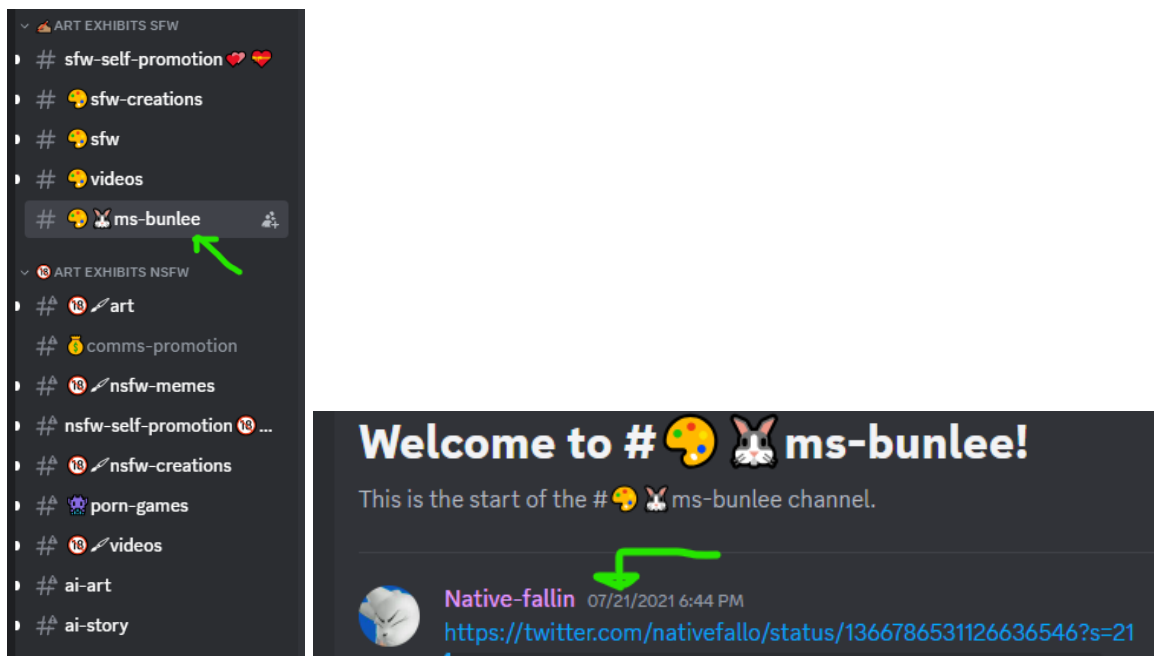

Strange coincidence. It's also worth noting that the account is the first and only one to know and bring up Nativefall's birthday (even when he was gone) as well as one of two main accounts posting porn of Nativefall's OC (the other one being Nativefall himself)

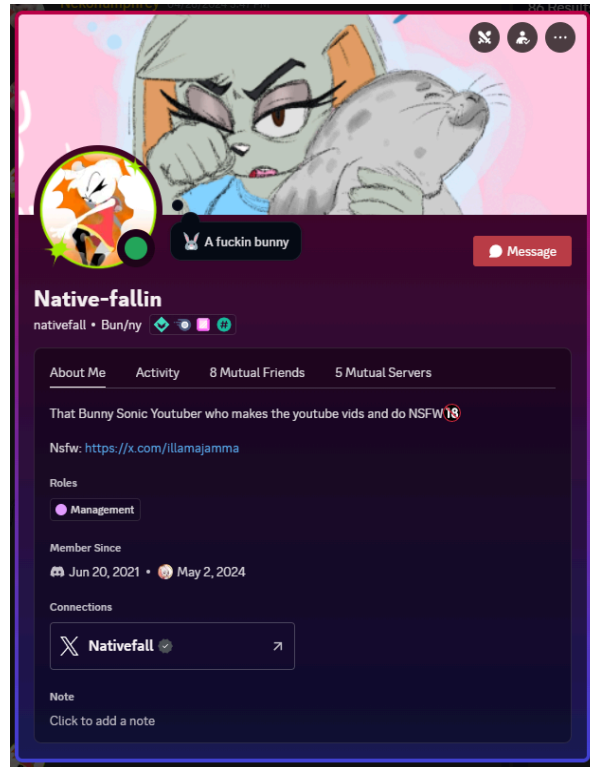

Also yes, the channel Nativefall is posting porn of himself in, is a SFW channel. There's actually only 5 channels that are specifically 1) in a section of SFW channels, 2) Not a labeled NSFW channel, 3) specifically has a emoji he designated to be safe for work channels 4) It's been this way since 2021 so it cannot be a mistake.

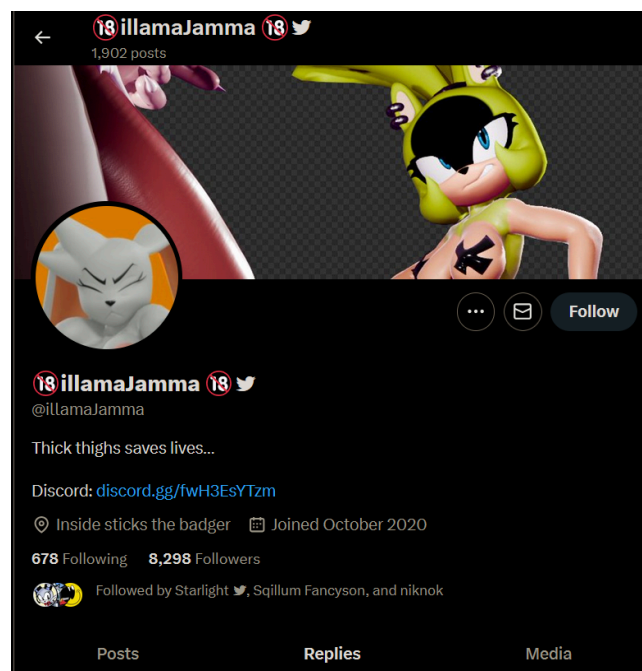

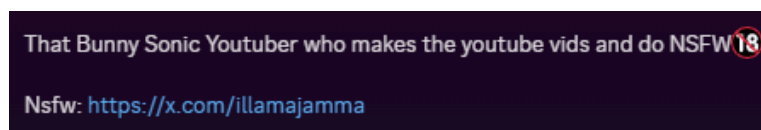

But to put the book-end on LlamaJamma, now that Native has returned to his main.

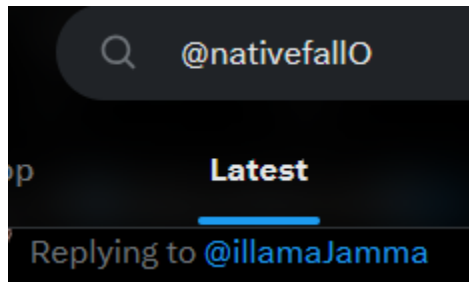

If you look at his profile (but only on this server) the only account he has linked to is his NSFW account is...

(which to prove it's his, the main @Nativefall account is actively linked in the connections)

Yes, his NSFW is now named LlamaJamma, which you can verify this for yourself, but to this moment now it will still come up if you search for the previous tag, @NativefallO

Native actually had two twitter accounts, and besides editing messages, I think this was one of the sneakiest parts he tried.

So as of right now, his main twitter is just @Nativefall, however this was not always the case. His old Sonic SFW twitter was named, “Nativefall Official” and the tag was, @nativefall_s His old Sonic NSFW twitter was named, “Nativefall Official” and the tag was @nativefallO

Now he was warned about this by Matt and many other sonictubers (there’s a server with around 90% of all soncitubers and TONS of people were telling him that his fans were gonna stumble upon it and it was a terrible idea”, but apparently Native wouldn’t listen. Or was this an intentional decision? Does someone accidentally brand one account that’s A) Made for children, identically to the account that's, B) Illegal to be viewed by children? In any scenario, can something like this happen by accident?

With A Side Of Cream

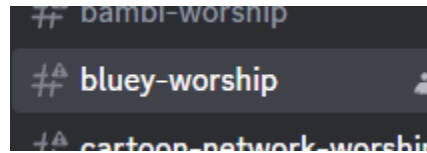

To go back to the photo gallery, now that we've got a nearly 100% chance that LlamaJamma is actually Native, I want to cover some of the posts and content from within the server itself, as that's where all the bad bits are.

Native's posts are so insane that you can go to any random page, and you'll see stuff like this:

Now this may seem like I just pasted the same thing twice, however these are two separate channels. As well pinned by him personally. But this is just a random selection, there's PLENTY more where this comes from.

There's hundreds of channels and it's all pretty appalling. Every single franchise you can think of is here. (Movies, Shows, Games, Etc)

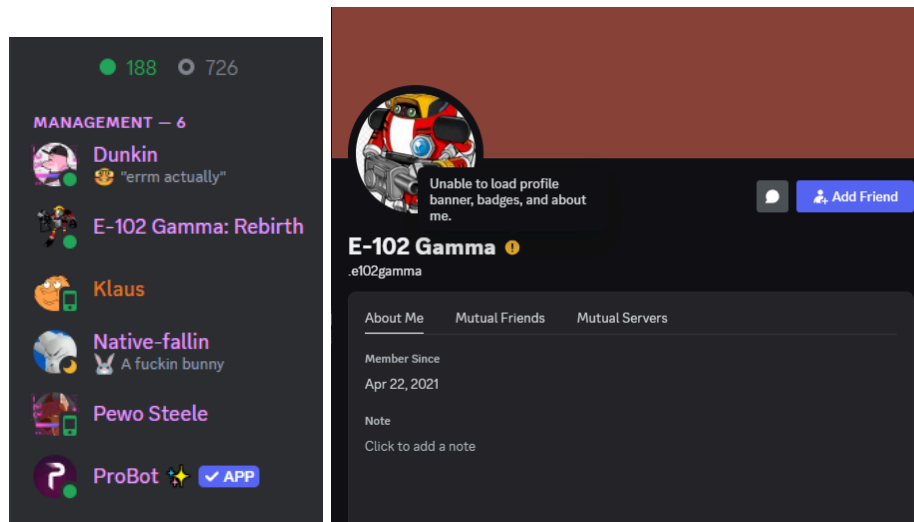

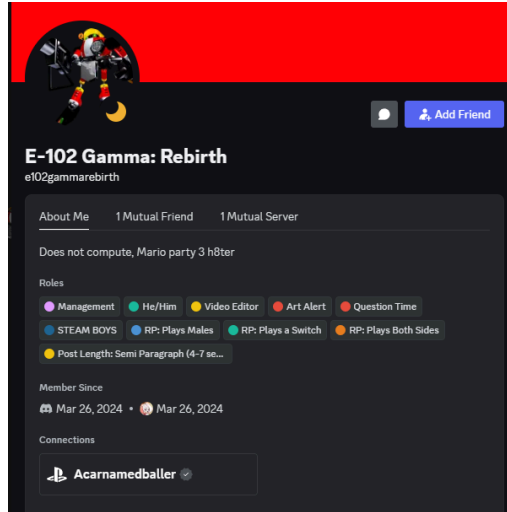

There's far too many to fit in a single (or even a series) screenshot, so here's a short clip (sped up) scrolling through all the channels in these, "worship" sections (Just the phrasing for, "porn of said franchise.") Feel free to pause and take a look at some of these. It's pretty good and shows the lack of boundaries Native has or even sees when it comes to minors.

E-102 GAMMA

Some of the most particularly disturbed stuff comes from an Admin of the server, someone hand picked by Native, and we see some discussion around this more later.

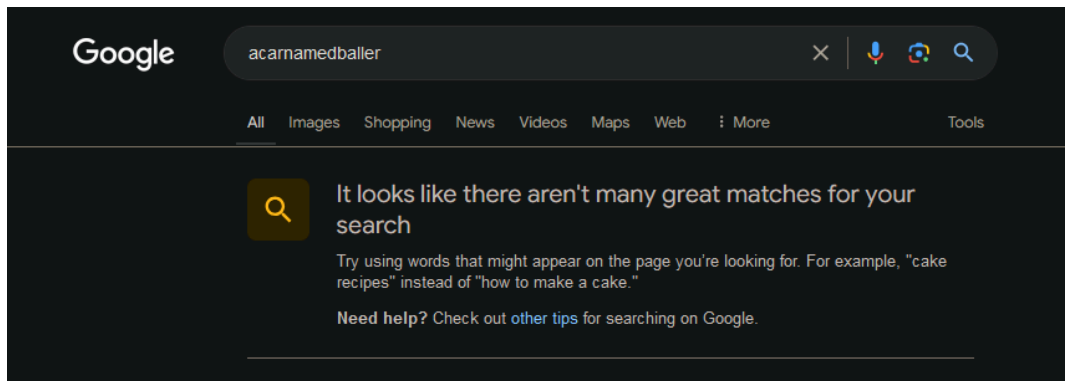

This user, who had to swap accounts, since it appears his main account was permanently banned by Discord themselves, (I can only speculate why) but they go by only, "E-102 Gamma" and the same day they created their new discord, they joined "the photo gallery".

Who exactly is E-102 Gamma? Only Native knows, which I refuse to believe someone gets to this level completely anonymously.

The only digital trace they have is a PlayStation account linked, “Acarnamedballer” but when searching this username up, nothing came up, at all.

Now why am I highlighting this account in particular?

Well they have posted no exaggeration, HUNDREDS of pictures of Cream, Maria, Tails. Charmy, Sage, and essentially every child character in the Sonic franchise (I think I named just about all of them)

Now obviously I won't (and probably legally can't) be posting these unedited,(even scrolling past them was somewhat disturbing) however for evidence, I will be posting these clips just pixelated and blurred enough so you can still tell which character is which. With by far the largest majority of posts being of Cream, with second being Maria, and then the rest.

You can see them pixelated here. (There's HUNDREDS)

SAGE

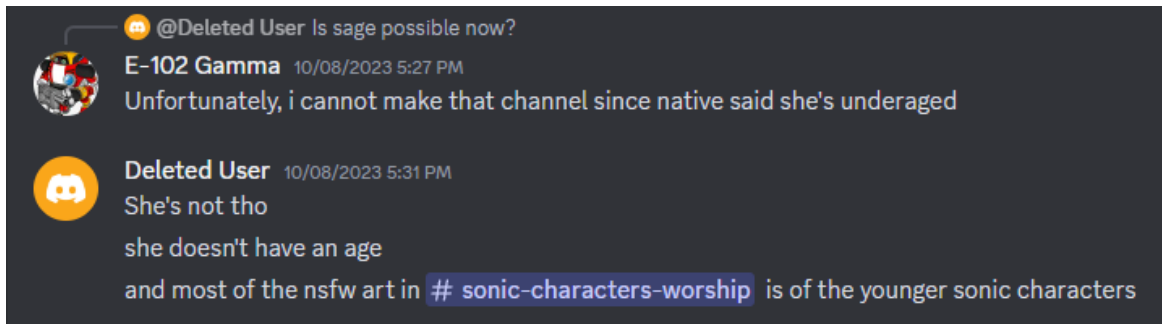

Now let's get into Sage. Many Sonic fans will be unsure if I'm talking about the Sonic Amateur Game Expo, or the character from Sonic Frontiers. I am talking about the latter.

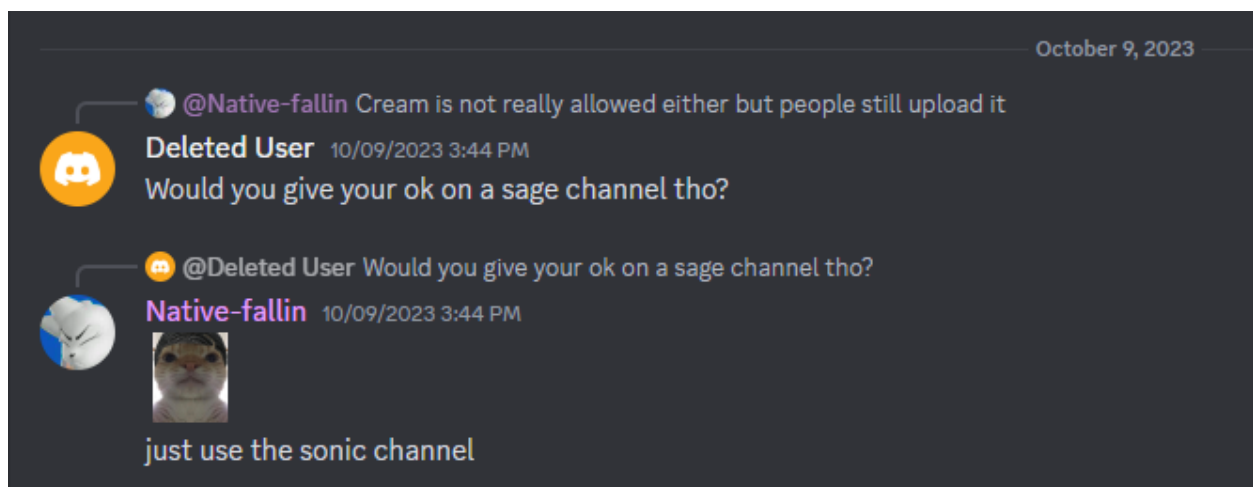

The server was adamantly wanting a dedicated channel for porn of Sage, like they currently have for Rouge and some other characters.

(note: these are two separate deleted accounts as you can see by their top interaction replying to each other. Judging by the amount of clearly kid characters posted here, deleted accounts are not a rarity in any way here.

Which actually seems like the first instance of Native doing the responsible thing... for now. Notice below the first reply from Native, where he essentially admits he doesn't care about people posting cream because, "People still upload it" (Isn't that the point of having mods?) (Also remember, Native is one of the people posting Cream.)

Meaning Yes, Native says porn of Sage IS allowed, but it will not get it's own dedicated channel (something that was heartbreaking for these deleted users)

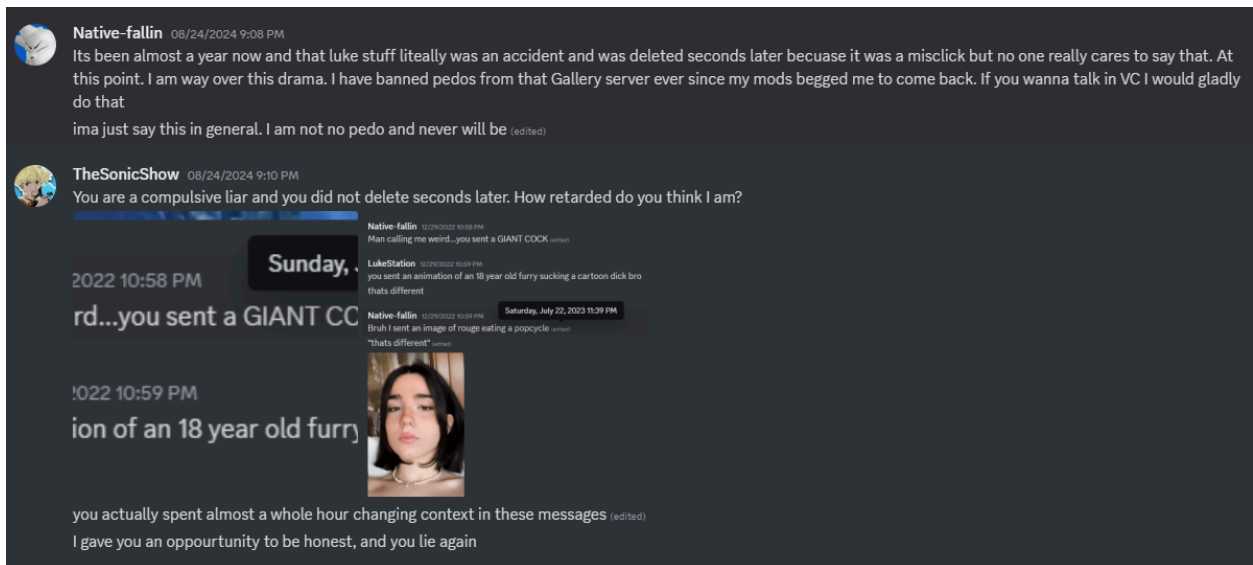

RESPONSE FROM NATIVE

Now before releasing this, I as someone who was formerly friends, gave Native the heads up and advanced knowledge of this document and video. The same way I did for Sam.

However even then he lied to me, when I referenced I knew he was illamaJamma, he told me the server was transferred to Gamma, which having a plugin the forces the crown, I can see his alt is still to this moment the owner of his server.

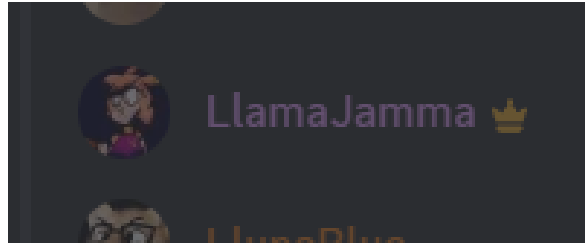

As you can probably tell, our interaction went far worse than mine with Sam, who just wanted to clear up stuff and boost optics, and Native lied multiple times in our conversation. He denied the Luke stuff and said he, “misclicked” and deleted it seconds later, something that is very provably untrue.

Which I am specifically trying to be as charitable as possible here and if it was just this one instance of weird behavior (or even just one person he sent porn to) then maybe I could believe this.

But there's tangible evidence that disproves this, there's many many examples of this same behavior with others, and he even denies anything about posting Cream, despite the posts to this very moment not being deleted but still up.

Also if you remember just a little bit up, based on the Sage and MANY MANY posts of minors, Gamma who is one of the worst degenerates in this entire server, is the person Native claims he transferred the server to, despite him being unaware that with a plugin I can see that's factually not true.

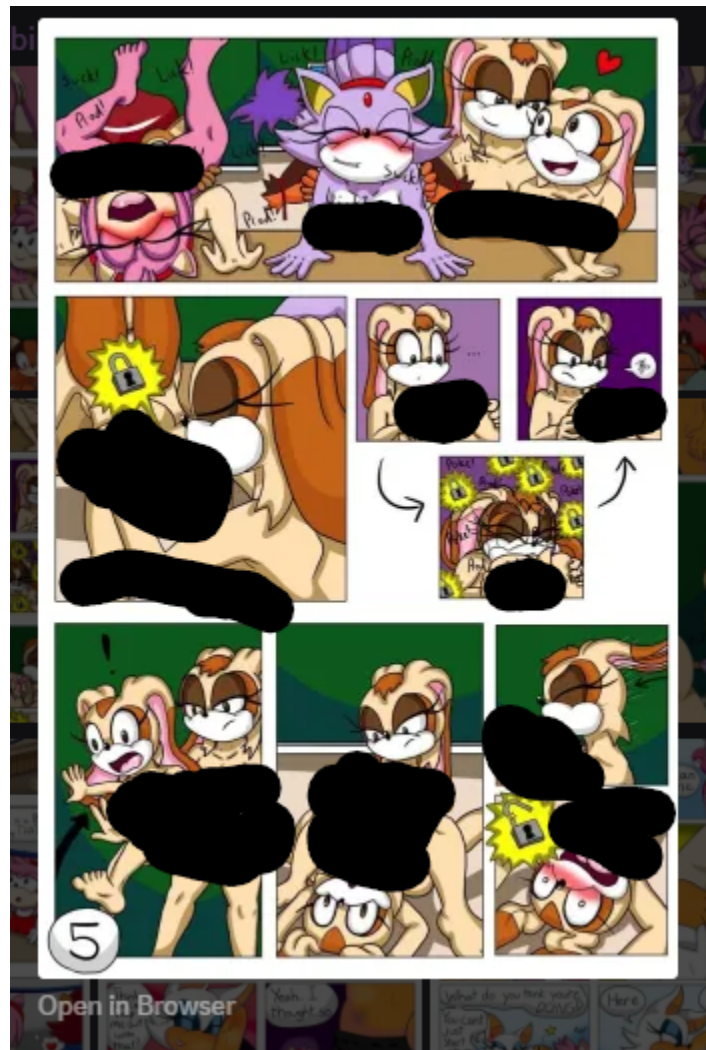

(Native's alt account, "LlamaJamma")

Vanilla x Cream Rape Porn

Now speaking of Cream and underage characters, the image under this was posted immediately followed by a Native pin, meaning there is a nearly 100% chance he saw it. And many can try to make the, "artistic expression" argument and how they like the "technicality of skill" when it looks like it was drawn in MS paint and it's sole purpose is to pornographically depict Cream being raped by her mom.

(obviously the original image posted is uncensored)

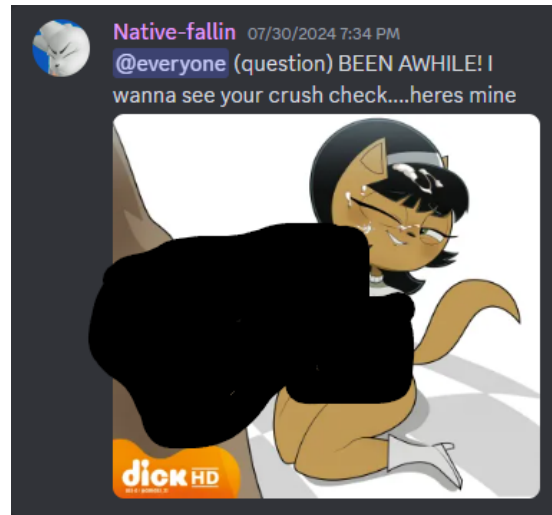

All of this is actually a very major departure, from a year ago when Luke, Matt, and all these other creators spoke out. As then he made it clear that, not only was all the art made when he was a “pre-teen” (Something that there are multiple multiple pieces of evidence debunking) and that he was over with NSFW art in general.

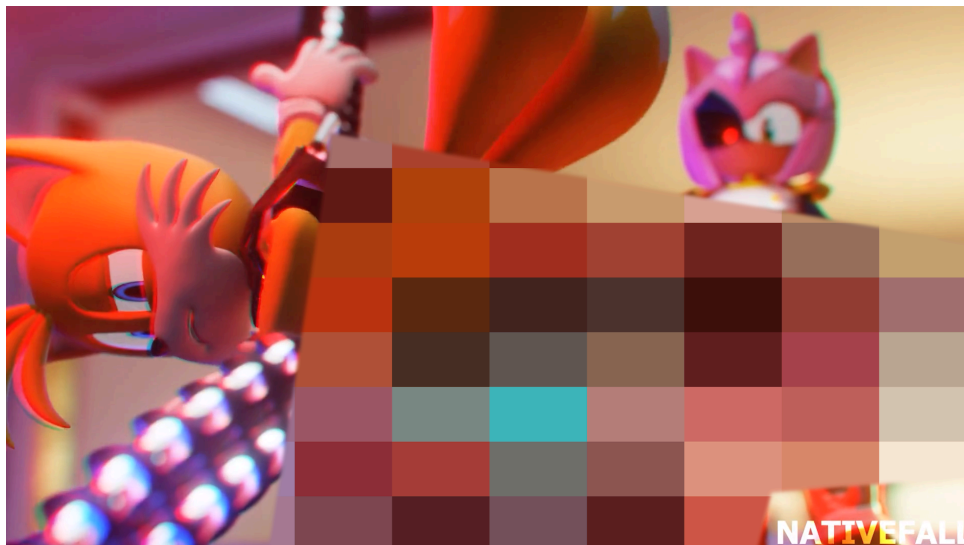

I was already done with NSFW in the first place but this was the straw that broke the camel's back and one of the biggest reasons why I became super adamant on not just being done with nsfw art, but deleting everything too. Whether it required legal action or not.

Which not only does he still (obviously) do NSFW art, but here's something he literally posted (and @'d everyone) as well as the posts he creates on his new rebranded twitter.

One of which is similar to his Sonic Prime animation of Tails Nine being "Anal Raped" by Rusty Rose.

There's many reuploads of it (he allegedly DMCA'd them forever ago, but now it appears as if it was reuploaded by him) and of course I'm not going to link or post the full one here, but to get a perspective, I pixelated a short snippet of it so it's censored, HERE, as well as a still from it below.

Now this was originally the thing that bothered people in the original document on Native, as knowledge of him drawing Cream and other characters, as well as messaging porn to Luke, who was 16, all hadn't come out yet.

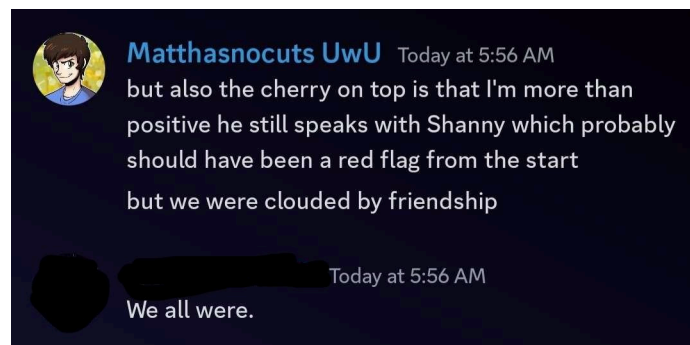

However despite, “Moving on from NSFW” and even lying to deny who created the Prime piece (yes, that’s his watermark in the bottom right)

Crossover Episode

Now when Me, Matt, and the other unnamed party confronted Native on a discord call, Matt had the idea to make Native open his DMs with Shanny, as Matt and Shanny were previously friends and while Matt cut ties, he wanted to see if Native did.

...And what we saw was some of the most degenerate porn I’ve ever witnessed with my own eyes.

Matt already had a hunch that Native was talking to Shanny,

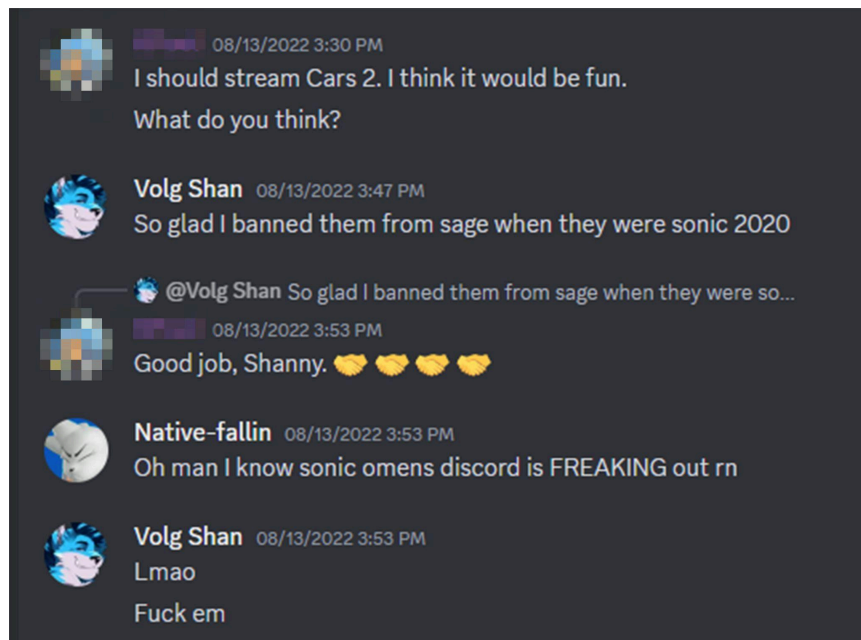

And after this, there were other accounts of people also aware of this fact.

Native, also aware of what Shanny had done, didn't distance himself, but grew closer to Shanny. As they potentially had a new common interest that they could share with each other.

For a long time, they were actually BOTH in the Sonictuber server. Something that I heard about recently and shocked me, as one of the requirements is 1k subs/followers, when Shanny doesn't have a public presence.

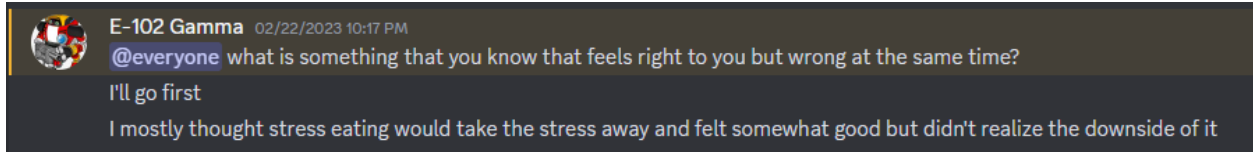

This was done because Shanny gives leaks to everyone before getting outed, and they liked having him around for that reason. Or at least this is how it was described to me by Matt, who was very close friends with Shanny before all of this.

For context the above is from around the time the Omens doc came out, and the pixelated name is someone who helped the doc writer and is referencing Cars 2 as they are the one who wrote the false claim about them taking music from Cars 2, which I guess Shanny was also involved with, as he is apparently a higher-up at the fangame event, SAGE (Sonic Amateur Game Expo)

Masturbating At Church

Now Server Mod/Pedophile art poster, E102-Gamma writes in the chat a question about what's something that's wrong but feels right. To which they put stress eating, a pretty normal and probably relatable habit for a lot of people.

And most of the responses were surprisingly pretty normal.
However Native's response actually shocked me to my core.

...what the fuck

Native Wrap-Up

To wrap on Native, as there's so much more that can be said, but I think everything important has now been said and I don't want this to be overly tedious to read. (Especially since it's far past double the length of the Shanny part)

This final bit is directly from Matt's doc when Native got caught with his Cream drawings and Tails Nine animation, and I think it's pretty telling as to who Native is as a person.

NATIVEFALL Today at 10:25 PM

I hope I can comeback maybe in a year or 2 when people forget. Although I admit I fucked up yeah dont tell people tho

Yeah that's him. This is who this guy is. He's not sorry for the actions he committed, he's sorry that he got caught.

Sincerely fuck that, I'm done with Native.

He has not shown to have improved in a single way, and with him last time having controversy over animating Tails, he only seemed to have gotten much worse.

Something like Tails is now tame to him, where it's just a regular day to day occurrence. In fact, as of today, he actually posted porn of Tails and Amy again... the thing that started his original controversy.

He literally just doesn't care.

So to pretend like he's changed and grown is nothing more than that. Pretending.

And when it comes to Native trying to obfuscate and lie when caught, again...

Occam's Razor
The simplest explanation is usually the correct one.

The End

These two are very similar. One is a YouTuber who uses his own audience, and the other uses another YouTuber's audience.

- Both have posted/favorited/pinned MANY images of Cream and other kid characters
- Both are leeching off an audience for potential victims
- Both have confirmed sent porn to a minor
- Both frequently attend Sonic fan conventions

That is all.

I did not want to stir the pot,

But frankly it's appalling that 'I' have to be the one to talk about this,

Considering I'm not gonna pretend like people don't still hate me for defending Omens, but in the scenario where that hit piece had a lot of factual inconsistencies, I wanted to provide as much proof and evidence for everything I say, so there's 0% possible way that this information can be twisted or manipulated by bad actors.

Every single claim I make has some piece of evidence for, even stuff that can't be proven, I got multiple firsthand recorded testimonies, which is something that would even hold up in a court of law. So I feel as if I have done my due diligence leading this investigation.

Most of the team I gathered to help me with the project (which was a LOT for this doc) want to remain anonymous, but I want to thank them genuinely as without their help, we couldn't have both the doc AND the video (the video was essentially 100% me)

And the fact that so many defend these two, for a community as child focused as ours, is in simple terms, fucked up.

People who are into children shouldn't be platformed to children.

It's not rocket science.
